

Worksheet "Homophones"

In the worksheet you can find information about homophones and tasks regarding them.

What are homophones?

Homophones are words that sound the same but are different in meaning or spelling.

Dictionary by Merriam-Webster

Examples of homophones

be / bee

"the bumble bee was on the flower"

"will you be my friend?"

see / sea

"it's so dark, I can't see anything"

"let's go swim in the sea"

Task 1. Choose appropriate words: they, there, they're, their

1. ____ going to have to save ____ money wisely to afford that big house over ____.
2. Is that ____ dog over ____?
3. Let's hope ____ learning ____ lesson this time around.
4. I am never going over ____ to ____ house again when ____ around.
5. I love that ____ always offering ____ love and support.

Task 2, "Dialogues". Fill in the blanks with correct homophones.

Words: miners, minors, flour, flower, sun, son, dye, die,

Dialogue 1

Anna: Could they be the _____?

Alice: Oh, sure. They're, like, three years old.

Anna: Miners, not _____!

Alice: You lost me.

Dialogue 2

Anna: Could you please go to the shop and buy _____?

Alice: Oh, sure. Is somebody having a birthday?

Anna: Not really, it's for my pancakes.

Alice: Wait what? _____ for pancakes?

Anna: : Silly, it's flour, not a _____.

Dialogue 3

Anna: Oh, the picture of the _____ is very nice.

Alice: _____? Oh, but I don't have kids.

Anna: No, I mean the _____ on your lock screen.

Alice: Oh, thanks.

Dialogue 4

Anna: Hi, Alice. Did you hear about John?

Alice: No, what happened?

Anna: He dyed...

Alice: No way..when did he _____?

Anna: Let me finish the sentence.. He _____ his hair pink, not _____!

Alice: Oh, huh, thank God.

Author: Alise Kuzņecova